

Wing Man (Vivian) Ho is in her first year of the MA program in Forensic Psychology at John Jay College of Criminal Justice (JJC). Vivian currently works as a Research and Administrative Assistant in the Office for Student Research & Creativity (OSRC) at JJC.

Born and raised in Hong Kong, Vivian came to New York at the age of 15 to pursue her dream of working in the field of psychology. She completed her undergraduate degree in Psychology at CUNY, York College in Fall 2020 and she was selected to be Salutatorian of the Class of 2021. As an undergraduate, Vivian was part of the Dean's list for 4 years.

As an undergraduate, Vivian worked with Dr. David Johnson as a Research Assistant. Their research focused on fear learning and memory processes. She is a member of Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology. She has attended and presented posters at the Eastern Psychological Association for two years. In addition, Vivian has also participated in the York Undergraduate Summer Research program.

After obtaining her Master's degree, Vivian plans to be a Data Analyst and hopes to work for the FBI. She also wants to share her research experience and knowledge with students and inspire them to do research.
