

Lisa Haye is an Economics major at John Jay College of Criminal Justice and works as a Research and Administrative Assistant for the Office for Student Research & Creativity. Additionally, she is interning with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, where she undertakes gun trafficking investigations through data analysis, digital forensics, and field assignment participation.

Previously, Lisa served as an investigative intern for the New York City Department of Investigation where she participated in criminal and civil cases for the New York City Housing Authority.

Moving forward, Lisa plans to conduct research within cultural institutions and disseminate her newly acquired knowledge with other academics and professionals.